

President's Message

Hello Members

What a cool Spring we've had, nice to have had such an amenable extension to our winter art season. A good bunch of us enjoyed our club practise session in the Scout Hall Saturday afternoon. It's certainly a lovely venue and we're enjoying being together and helping each other with our endeavours.

I hope you can make it to the November meeting on Monday 7th, which will involve some exciting planning for next year's activities. I will soon be emailing the agenda and memo for November and please remember to let me know by the November meeting if you are able to attend the BACCI end of year function which takes the place of the December monthly meeting, Monday 5th December.

I have been leaving hard copies of newsletters and emails in the BACCI box in Colour Copy shop for snail mail members. Thanks to Eddie for continuing to provide this service to our members.

Lesley has added another lovely string to her bow recently. Her stunning butcher bird drawing was selected to be published in a hard cover art anthology entitled "Strokes of Genius 8 – expressive texture". Big congratulations to Lesley whose achievements are an inspiration to all of us.

We are always keen to hear about your achievements, and to receive relevant news for this newsletter. As you can see, there is now some limited space available for a photo or two.

Looking forward to seeing you at the next Cherry St Sports pre meeting drinks and snack followed by the monthly meeting.

Happy Creating, Di Bell

Our next Monthly meeting will be held on

MONDAY – 5.30pm

At the Cherry Street Bowling Club.

All members and friends are welcome to come along.

Exhibition Report and Lennox News

The Christmas decorations are already creeping into the stores and we are all about to wonder what we have achieved for another year. Well some BACCI members have again shown what talent there is in the club. At the recent TINCAN exhibition, Di Bell won the abstract section and Rena Hurley won the Still life section. The judge was very well known and highly regarded local artist, Rene Bolton, congratulations, well deserved! The exhibition raised $4000.00 for the local community. Melissa Wright won Best in Show.

THE NRCG is launching a new event from 26 October to 20 November, "All New Home" an exhibition exploring the concept of home through the eyes of 4 different artists working across 4 different mediums. Video and performance artist – Heath Franco as well as artists Kathryn Dolby (painting), Gregory Furney (ceramics) and Natalie Crono (photography)

In the Tweed gallery "Local Provenance" - is an exhibition which presents the works of 12 printmakers who live in the local regions and who trained in the printmaking studios of Southern Cross University. This is the year of "The Print" which is a national celebration of the Print Council of Australia's first fifty years of advocacy for Australian printmakers.

In the Anthony Gallery local artist James Guppy is holding an exhibition commenting on the ethical behaviours in capitalism. A beautifully painted social comment.

Locally for those who haven't visited The Serpentine Gallery in Lismore, it is celebrating its 10th year. The exhibition "Decadence" is celebrating a decade of Arts and community and runs from 4th Nov to 21 November at 17 Bridge St, North Lismore.

Anyone is interested in some new ideas –have a look in YouTube at "Brusho" some interesting and wild watercolour effects... painting with crystals.
